OUR TENORS

*Seated: Jeannie Hodges, Susan Wolpin
Standing: Romy Moriles, Bill Hearn*

Bill Hearn...Bill has been singing in our Canterbury Choir for 10 years or more. He has been singing in, or playing for, choirs for around 35 years. Bill says he has been playing 3rd Chair Rock in the Atlanta Neanderthal Orchestra since 19,000 BC. According to Bill, his degrees in music are BM (Bad Musician), MM (Mediocre Musician), and DMA (Definitely Mediocre Apprentice). The instruments he can play would fill a room. Bill states that his musical influences are anything thoroughly weird.

Jeannie Hodges...Jeannie has been singing in our Canterbury Choir for five years. She has been singing in choirs for around 60 years, having started when she was 5 years old. Jeannie was in All State Choir for two years. She loves the old hymns and all classics.

Romy Moriles...Romy has been singing in our Canterbury Choir for 6 1/2 years. He has previously sung with the Silliman Choir from the Philippines. His favorite anthem is The Hallelujah Chorus.

Susan Wolpin...Susan has been singing in our Canterbury Choir for five years. She has been singing in choirs for 65 years, and started in church choirs when she was 10 years old. She sang with the All State Choir for four years. Susan had some piano lessons and could play the chorus of "The Chocolate Soldier" as a child, and "The Mikado" in high school. She enjoys jazz and 30's & 40's music.

All four agree that Bruce is their favorite choir director.
